THE CROWD AND SPORT POOR.

MANY HORSES WERE SCRATCHED AT GRAVESEND.

ARTICLES SIGNED FOR THE LAMPLICHTER-TAM-MANY MATCH-AUGUST BELMONT ELECT-ED TO THE BOARD OF CONTROL.

The storm yesterday morning was the means of be programme as originally presented was one of fair promise, but the muddy track brought a formidable list of scratches, leaving the card only a skeleton. The public had evidently anticipated this, for the attendance was light.

The First Special, which promised to be the contest of the day, for in it Lamplighter and Tammany were booked to run, dwindled down to a onesided affair between Lamplighter and Cadmus, the latter's mission evidently being the $500 second Tammany's name was not posted among the list of scratches until the very last minute, hi trainer evidently waiting to see if Lamplighter would run before declaring out. With Lamplighter the same dodging tactics were displayed. On Friday Mr. Walbaum said positively that the colt would not run, and when his name appeared officially as a starter it was a surprise to all.

Race-goers, however, will have a chance to see Lamplighter and Tammany meet on September 28-that is, if the track is good. If the day be unfavorable the race will be postponed to the first suitable day thereafter. The match was made late on Thursday and will be for $2,500 a side, with $5,900 added by the Hudson County Jockey Club, at whose track the race will be run. The distance will be a mile and a quarter, and both colts will carry 122 pounds. The articles of agreement have been signed by both sides, and ail that is now wanted is a good day to make the race the greatest of the year. Both sides are confident, while among the public neither colt lacks for admirers. Many believe that 40,000 people will see the two meet.

Board of Control held a meeting yesterday and elected August Belmont to membership. It adopted the following:

Whereas, This body does not recognize that any member of the Board of Control occupies his position as representing any specific interest whatever in racecourses or otherwise, but represents general and broad interests of the turf; there-

Strathmeath, Terri-Ger and Highland were at one time equal favorites at 2½ to 1, and even at the close there was little difference between them, Strathmeath being the favorite by the smallest of margins. When it came to racing, Highland had things all her own way. She was second to show at the start, but in a few strides was in the lead. This position she held to the finish, where she was an easy winner by a good length; Strathmeath second, a eck in front of Terrrifler. Stonenell was made the favorite for the second race, but he was little better played than Derfar-gilla, who carried a "swell" commission for her owner, "Pittsburg Phil." Pedestrian had some support for the place, but both he and Derfargillla ran a disappointing race. Both showed well up for half a mile, then died away to nothing. Stonenell won under a pull by three lengths, Annie Bishop second, a length in front of Pedestrian.

Heien Nichols was withdrawn from the third race, which was the Clinton Stakes for three-year-old filles. It was to be her first appearance of the reason in the East, and her absence served to lessen the interest in the race.

Although the work of improving the cemetery introduced into every crypt or catacomb.

Although the work of improving the cemetery has only gone on during two years and nine months, much has been accomplished in the way of grading and laying out of walks and drives. About 200 burials have been made. The foundations for many menuments have already been laid, and next season the elevations will be made, adding greatly to the artistic effect of the place. One of the old farmhouses in the inclosure will be repaired, in accordance with its original style for architecture, and reserved as a sort of refectory for the use of visitors and plot-owners.

With the rural surroundings preserved, as they probably will be for a long time to come, Kensico Cemetery must certainly prove a desirable place for the burial of the dead.
